IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT BOMBAY

ORDINARY ORIGINAL CIVIL JURISDICTION

NOTICE OF MOTION NO.2571 OF 2004

IN

SUMMARY SUIT NO.2074 OF 2004

The Bombay Burmah Trading Corpn. Ltd. ... Plaintiff.

vs.

Summer-Cool Refrigeration .... Defendant.

Mrs.Usha Purohit i/b. Mr.R.Bagdadi, for Plaintiff.

None for Defendant.

CORAM: D.K.DESHMUKH,J.

DATED: 21st July,2005

P.C.:-

1. This is a notice of motion taken out by the plaintiff. The learned Counsel appearing for plaintiff states that the defendant has been served. The affidavit of service has been filed. The defendant is not appearing. No affidavit in reply has been filed. In the absence of any reply, accepting the averments in the affidavit filed in support of the Notice of Motion at face value, notice of motion is granted in terms of prayer clause (a). Four weeks time is fixed for furnishing security. Notice of motion disposed of.